Join us on magical rail journey from Beijing to St Petersburg along the legendary Trans Mongolian and Trans-Siberian Railways. Discover the history and culture of Beijing, sample the nomadic life staying in a traditional Mongolian Ger camp, and plunge into the freezing cold waters of Lake Baikal, Siberia (after a few Russian vodkas!). Conclude your journey in historic Moscow and stunning St Petersburg.

Highlights include Tiananmen Square, Temple of Heaven, Great Wall of China. Ulaanbaatar, the capital of Mongolia will excite you with Zaisan Memorial, Gandan Hidd Monastery and Khustai National Park. In Ulan Ude you will experience a city excursion to Ivolginsk Monastery and Ethnographic Museum. Enjoy a walking tour of Irkutsk and in Yekaterinburg, discover the history and intrigue surrounding the brutal murders of the Romanov Family. Visit Nizhny Novgorod, picturesque former trading post with an impressive cliff top Kremlin. Also visit the Golden Ring cities of Suzdal and Vladimir, 2 of the oldest settlements in Russia.
